

The Classification Policy of FENM

FENM program is a compulsory one-year course with 6 credits. Students will be assigned to Track-A and Track-B course. Track-A course, a 3-3-credit, 3-hours-a-week course without the listening language lab, is designed for FENM students who score 30 (75%) or above on the listening section of the FENM Placement Test with a total score of 56 or above; Track-B course, a 3-3-credit, 4-hours-a-week course with 1-hour listening language lab and 3-hour regular class, is designed for FENM students who score lower than 30 (75%) on the listening section of the FENM Placement Test and also for those whose total scores of the FENM Placement Test are lower than 56.

Passed; ELC CPRC, May 19, 2009

Passed; ELC Council, June 16, 2009

Passed; College CPRC, October 22, 2009

Passed; University CPRC, November 16, 2009

Amended; ELC CPRC, April 21, 2020

Amended; ELC Council, May 5, 2020

Amended; College CPRC, October 13, 2020

Passed; University CPRC, November 3, 2020